1. INTRODUCTION:

A subscriber to a channel on the video-sharing YouTube is a user who has chosen to receive the channel's content by clicking on that channel's "Subscribe" button, and each user's subscription feed consists of videos published by channels to which the user is subscribed. The ability to subscribe to users was introduced in October 2005. YouTube began publishing a list of its most- subscribed channels in April 2006. An early archive of the list dates to May 2006.

The following table lists the 50 most-subscribed YouTube channels, as well as the primary language and content category of each channel. The channels are ordered by number of subscribers; those whose displayed subscriber counts are identical are listed so that the channel whose current growth rate indicates that its displayed subscriber count will exceed that of the other channel is listed first. Automatically generated channels that lack their own videos (such as Music and News) and channels that have been made effectively obsolete as a result of the transferal of their content (such as Justin Bieber VEVO and Taylor Swift VEVO) are excluded. As of February 2023, 21 of the 50 channels listed primarily produce content in English while 16 primarily produce content in Hindi. All 50 of the channels have surpassed 40 million subscribers, 39 of them have surpassed 50 million subscribers, 23 of them have surpassed 60 million subscribers, 16 of them have surpassed 70 million subscribers, 12 of them have surpassed 80 million subscribers, 10 of them have surpassed 90 million and 7 of them have surpassed 100 million subscribers. Only 1 channel (T-Series) has surpassed 200 million subscribers.

1.1. PURPOSE:

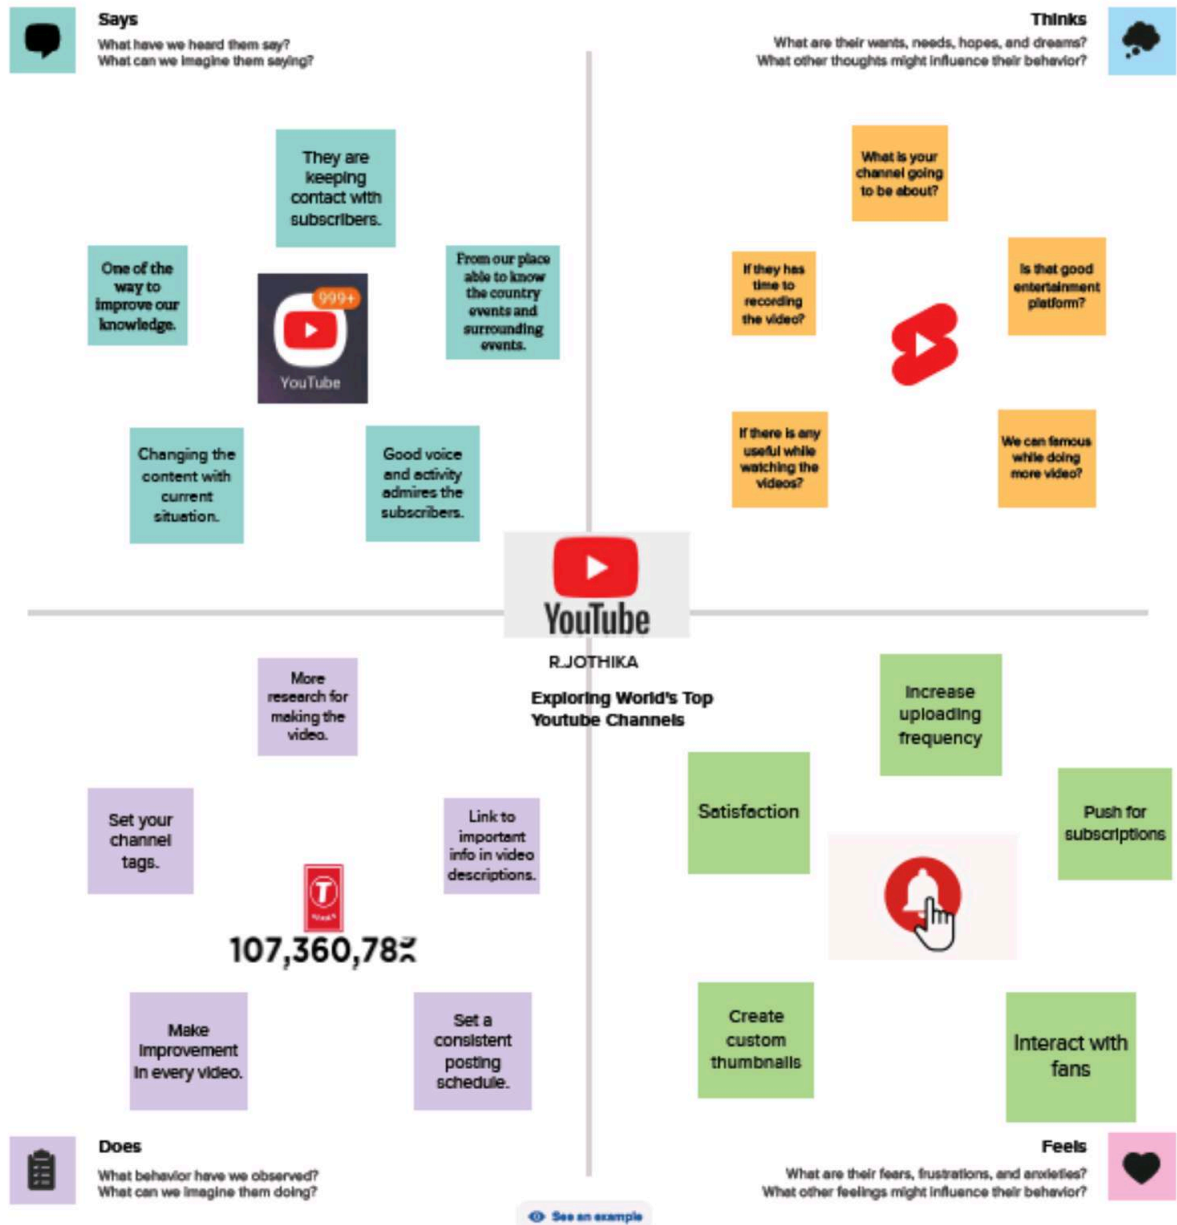

- Simply put, you tube subscribers. Refer to the people or accounts that are subscribed to your channel. So, whenever you upload a new video, your subscribers will be able to see it in their feeds.
- This makes your subscribers more likely to watch video you upload.

1.2. GRAPH DEFINITION:

- You can find the subscribers count graph in YouTube's analysis lab.
- It gets you track your channel's overview, content, income, audience.

2. PROBLEM DEFINITION & DESIGN THINKING:

2.1 EMPATHY MAP:

2.2. IDEATION AND BRAIN STORMING MAP:

Brainstorm & Idea prioritization

Use this template in your next brainstorming session to generate ideas, evaluate them, and prioritize them. It's a simple, easy-to-use tool that will help you get the most out of your brainstorming session.

- Brainstorm ideas
- Evaluate ideas
- Prioritize ideas

1. Brainstorm

What is the problem you are trying to solve? What are the goals of your project? What are the constraints of your project?

Brainstorm ideas. Write down as many ideas as you can. Don't worry about whether they are good or bad. Just write them down.

Use the following questions to help you brainstorm:

- What is the problem?
- What are the goals?
- What are the constraints?
- What are the resources?
- What are the risks?
- What are the opportunities?

2. Evaluate

Now that you have a list of ideas, it's time to evaluate them. Use the following questions to help you evaluate each idea:

- Is the idea feasible?
- Is the idea innovative?
- Is the idea practical?
- Is the idea cost-effective?
- Is the idea scalable?
- Is the idea sustainable?

3. Prioritize

Now that you have evaluated your ideas, it's time to prioritize them. Use the following questions to help you prioritize your ideas:

- Which idea is the most important?
- Which idea is the most innovative?
- Which idea is the most practical?
- Which idea is the most cost-effective?
- Which idea is the most scalable?
- Which idea is the most sustainable?

4. Implement

Now that you have prioritized your ideas, it's time to implement them. Use the following questions to help you implement your ideas:

- What are the steps to implement the idea?
- What are the resources needed to implement the idea?
- What are the risks of implementing the idea?
- What are the opportunities of implementing the idea?
- What are the constraints of implementing the idea?
- What are the goals of implementing the idea?

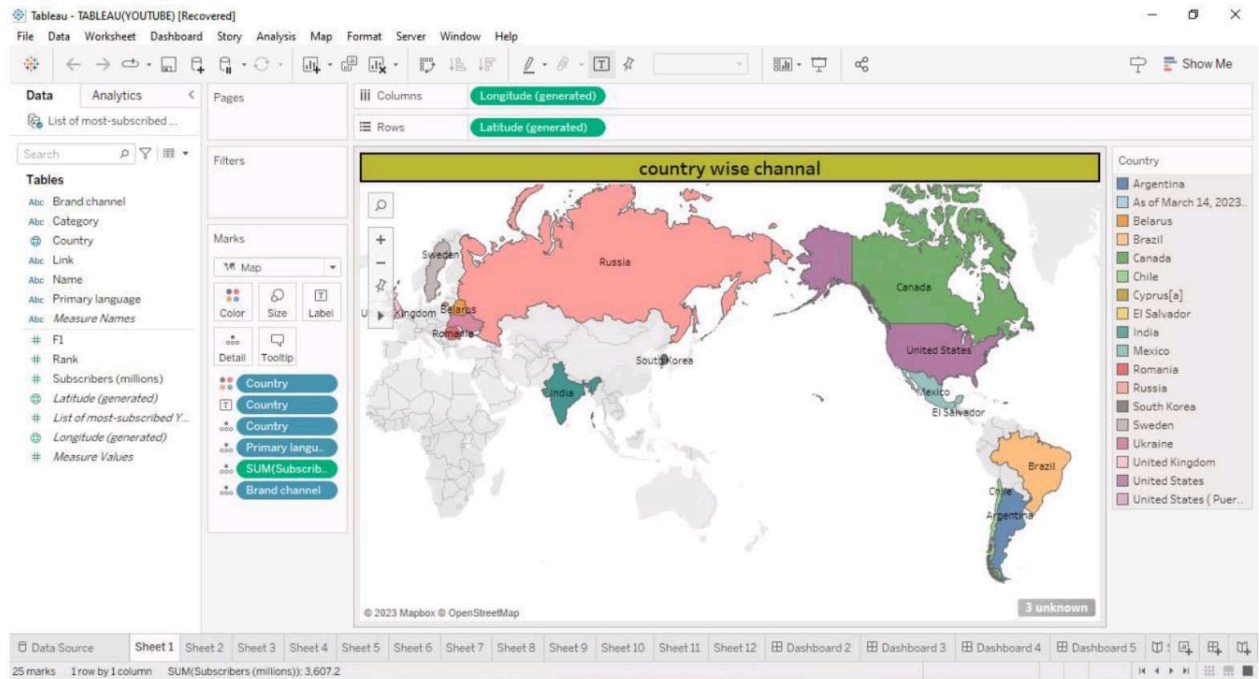

5. Review

Now that you have implemented your ideas, it's time to review them. Use the following questions to help you review your ideas:

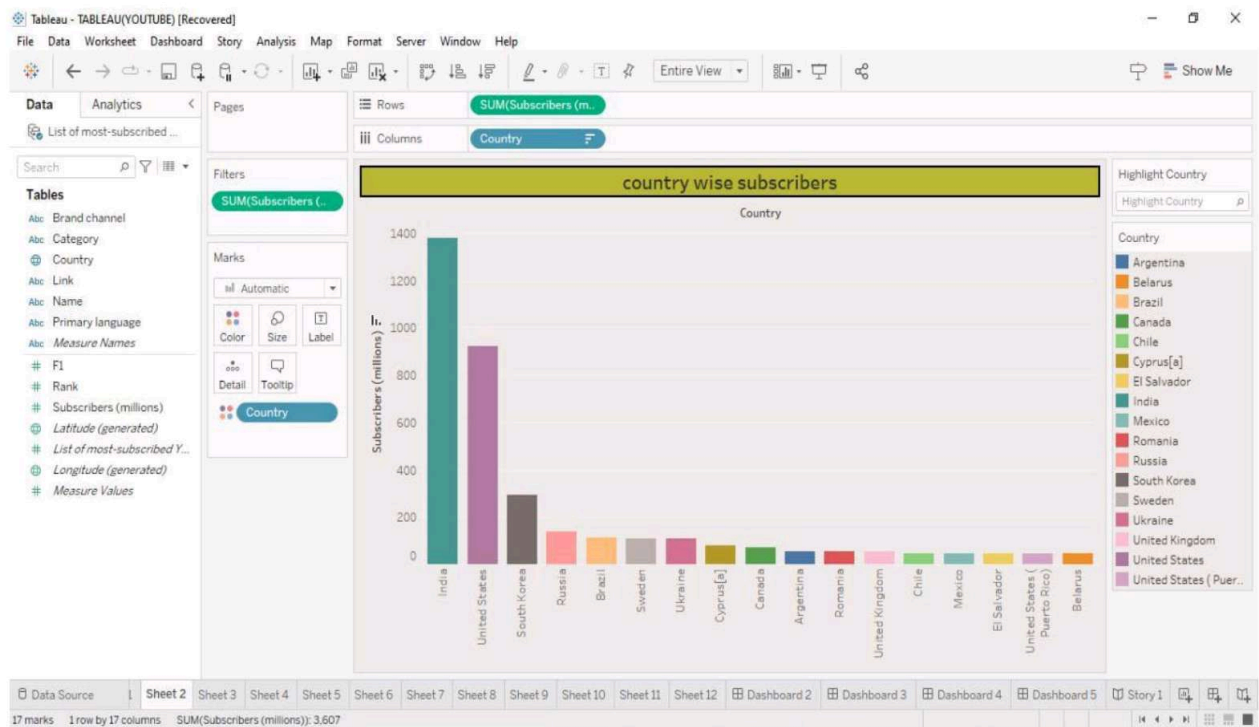

- Did the idea work?
- Did the idea meet the goals?
- Did the idea meet the constraints?
- Did the idea meet the resources?
- Did the idea meet the risks?
- Did the idea meet the opportunities?
